Rihanna Shines In Top 10; New Reporters Join Panels

Rihanna extends her record for the most top 10s on Billboard's Nielsen BDS-based Mainstream Top 40 chart, as "Diamonds" (IDJMG) darts 12-9. The song marks her 22nd top 10, pushing her further ahead of runner-up (and labelmate) Mariah Carey, who's banked 17. Usher ranks third with 16, followed by Plnk and Britney Spears (15 each).

Rihanna has rung up her record tally since her 2005 arrival—a feat made even more impressive given the list's 1992 launch. She also holds the marks for most No. 1s (nine, a record she shares with Katy Perry) and most chart entries (34). In September, she earned the honor of Billboard's top artist of the chart's first 20 years.

On the Billboard Hot 100, "Diamonds" ranks at No. 5, marking Rihanna's 16th top five hit. Only four women in the chart's 54-year history have bested the sum: Madonna (28), Carey (26), Janet Jackson (24) and Whitney Houston (19).

"Diamonds" previews Rihanna's seventh studio set, Unapologetic, due Nov. 19.

REPORTING FOR DUTY: Effective with today's BDS-monitored airplay (Nov. 5), a host of stations begin contributing to the Mainstream Top 40, Rhythmic and Adult Top 40 chart panels.

As of the Nov. 24 Billboard issue (for the BDS tracking week of Nov. 5-11), the following stations join as Mainstream Top 40 reporters: WODS Boston; KCHZ Kansas City; KPLV Las Vegas; WABD Mobile, Ala.; WPLW Raleigh, N.C.; and KKSX Topeka, Kan.; WBBM Chicago; WWKL Harrisburg, Pa.; and KTBT Tulsa, Okla., join from the Rhythmic panel; WZPL Indianapolis joins from Adult Top 40; and WSTW Wilmington, Del., segues from Mainstream to Adult Top 40. (KQIE Riverside, Calif., additionally begins reporting to Rhythmic, while WJJS Roanoke, Va., departs the panel.)

Eight more stations begin contributing to Mainstream Top 40 effective with the Dec. 1 issue (for the BDS tracking week of Nov. 12-18): WKDD Akron, Ohio; KLLY Bakersfield, Calif.; WZRR Birmingham, Ala.; WHTI Richmond, Va.; WZOK Rockford, Ill.; KEGY San Diego; WWHT Syracuse, N.Y.; and WWWW Toledo, Ohio.

For more on the Mainstream Top 40 panel's expansion, see Ross on Radio on the next page.

How Stations Get To Top 40

Format booms are often propelled by a hot body of music, but they don't always start that way. CBS launched Mike Joseph's Hot Hits format on WCAU-FM Philadelphia in September 1981—hardly a great time for top 40 music. WCAU's success prompted a similar move at sister WBBM-FM (B96) Chicago, and CBS became, for several years, the most prominent of several top 40-friendly group owners.

In the mid-'90s, after a format collapse that many thought would never be undone, top 40 gradually rebounded, driven by a number of stations that had ditched the format several years earlier, then crept back in from alternative or adult top 40. With those twin evolutions came an unlikely crop of eclectic pop hits—songs not unlike some of our recent quirky pop/rock breakthroughs.

During the next two weeks, 17 top 40 stations are being added to Billboard's Mainstream Top 40 panel (see story, page 1). It's the kind of large-scale format growth that used to happen every time industry publications updated their panels during previous booms, but that we haven't seen for a while. And it's instructive to consider how some of those stations arrived in (or returned to) top 40.

Like the early-'80s CBS stations and the late-'90s rush of rhythmic-leaning Clear Channel top 40s, there are certainly stations that reflect an owner's enhanced commitment to top 40, often prompted by a major success story elsewhere in the group, such as CBS-owned WODS (Amp Radio) Boston and KEGY (Energy 103.7) San Diego or Cox's WHTI (Hot 100.9) Richmond, Va.

There are also a lot of mid-'90s-style returns from adult top 40, at a time when the two formats have moved so close to each other that many adult top 40s don't see any reason not to keep evolving. WZPL Indianapolis; WKDD Akron, Ohio; KLLY (Kelly 95.3) Bakersfield, Calif.; and WWWM (Star 105) Toledo, Ohio, are all stations that followed the format's trend toward mainstream top 40 and just kept going.

Many of the mid-'90s converts came back after only a few years away from mainstream top 40. A few of this new crop of stations needed two format cycles to be convinced. B96's return is particularly symbolic, returning from rhythmic after nearly 25 years. WZPL softened to adult top 40 in the late '90s and has been perched on the cusp of the two formats ever since—the adult top 40 that played Eminem when the song in question was "Lose Yourself," not "Love the Way You Lie."

Like WHTT, WODS was part of the early-'80s boom. WWWM waited for three format cycles. It ditched top 40 in the early '80s for album rock, right around the time that the format was growing elsewhere.

One station barely left the format but took an equally convoluted route to reporter status. WABD Mobile, Ala., is its own successor. When heritage top 40 WABB was sold to the owners of the Christian AC K-Love network, Cumulus grabbed similar calls and several former staffers to re-create the station on another frequency, then swapped dial positions with K-Love.

One thing that's markedly different this time is the number of stations evolving from rhythmic top 40. Until relatively recently, if a rhythmic top 40 went mainstream, it wasn't following the music. It was often making a change despite strong ratings because its owners just didn't want to be in a format that differed from R&B/hip-hop by only a few records, or (for some stations) by reporting status only.

Now, as with the adult top 40 converts, the evolution of several former rhythmic outlets reflects the strength of mainstream product and a product drought at home. At a time when there's surprisingly little rhythmic pop in the top 10 and almost no R&B/hip-hop crossover on the mainstream chart, it's hard to be "hits and hip-hop" when the "hits" part of the equation is the Lumineers or Owl City.

In the late '90s, Clear Channel's rapidly proliferating top 40s, with their rhythmic leans and high spins, had an undeniable impact on the format. Some of the incumbent stations they challenged chose other formats, rather than follow the format's pull toward extreme music. The current pop center of the format can be traced to multiple influences—iTunes, music supervisors, perhaps PPM measurement and, yes, the individual decisions of some stations. The net result, though, is that many of the new top 40s can genuinely tell advertisers (as stations do after a format modification) that their arrival in the format is "an evolution, not a revolution."

Billboard's Mainstream Top 40, Rhythmic and Adult Top 40 charts rank total weekly plays (for the week ending Sunday) on 140, 70 and 78 stations, respectively, as monitored 24 hours a day, seven days a week by Nielsen BDS. Titles receive bullets if even or gaining in weekly plays. Average Plays per Station reflects Mainstream Top 40 titles' weekly plays totals divided by the number of stations on which they received airplay in the chart's tracking week. Greatest Gainers reflect titles with the top weekly increases in plays. New and Active lists the top titles gaining in plays below the Mainstream Top 40 chart. Chart data presented is this update is preliminary and subject to change, pending final review by Billboard and BDS.
